Pet Supplies Plus of White Lake, Michigan is looking for homes for 200 cats and kittens that will come from Oakland Pet Adoption Center (part of Oakland County Animal Control) for a cat adoption event Friday, June 3 through Sunday, June 5. The store will also host a Pet HealthCare Fair on Sunday, June 5 featuring FREE wellness exams for cats and dogs plus reduced-cost veterinary services including vaccines, microchipping and more.

"We are hoping that all or most of the cats and dogs will find loving homes," says store owner Addy Shattuck. "Many of these beautiful animals were someone's pet that they were unable to keep. Our adoption event is a great way to meet your new family member and give a loving pet a good home."

During this time she has found homes for more than 4,000 cats and kittens working with various shelters and rescue groups including Oakland Pet Adoption Center in Auburn Hills, Bloomfield Twp. Animal Control and others. Shattuck was recently recognized with an award from Oakland County for her efforts.

The adoption event will be held in a 4,500-square-foot retail space adjacent to Pet Supplies Plus. Use of the space has been donated by shopping center owner Richard Zoner who also owns Farmer John's Greenhouse in Farmington Hills.

The Pet HealthCare Fair, which will be held inside Pet Supplies Plus will offer FREE wellness exams for dogs and cats as well as low-cost veterinary services including distemper vaccines, rabies vaccines, heartworm vaccines, feline leukemia testing, microchipping and more. Hope many many new homes are available for those kitties.

Many thanks for sharing my kitty story on your facebook, Caren. I'm so glad that your friends liked the story too. The kitty is settling down well and happily with his new family. The yoga lady is a veteran yogi and she has a big heart. Her two children, aged 12 and 16 adore the new comer.
