

Sexy fundraising for homeless pets

January 5, 4:58 PM

by Sharon Seltzer, Pet Rescue Examiner

Sexy Hooter's girls raise money for Heaven Can Wait Sanctuary Spay/Neuter community program.

Animal rescue groups are getting creative when it comes to fundraising in this challenging economic climate. Costs are rising as non-profit shelters take-in more cats and dogs because people cannot afford to keep them. And at the same time, donations are down dramatically due to unemployment and home foreclosures.

In order to bring in the necessary money to continue their work, some animal welfare organizations are resorting to – SEX.

Hooters for Neuters

At a recent Pet Expo in Las Vegas, NV the Heaven Can Wait Sanctuary recruited the help from the animal loving Hooter's girls to bring in fundraising dollars. The young women drew a lot of attention to the organization's booth during the two day event, which raised money for a low-cost, high volume spay/neuter program. Heaven Can Wait Sanctuary spay/neuters 8,000 cats and dogs every year.

<http://www.examiner.com/x-669-Pet-Rescue-Examiner~y2009m1d5-Sexy-fundraising-for-homeless-pets>